2022 Grant Application

Established in 2008, the Columbus Area Endowment (CAE) makes direct annual grants to qualified organizations in the Columbus area and brings awareness to philanthropy in the community. CAE is dedicated to enhancing the educational, cultural, and economic vitality of the Columbus area for present and future generations and supports the quality of life of its citizens through charitable grants. CAE funds grants that support new programs or expand existing programs and supports construction or purchase of facilities, land, vehicles, or equipment. CAE's key interest areas include cultural enrichment, community development, education, the environment and historic preservation.

CAE does not fund groups without nonprofit status, or any organizations that practice discrimination. The following types of grants are not funded by CAE: Annual campaigns, capital grants to support ongoing maintenance and operations; debt retirement; endowments not held by CAE; health care services, including mental health and substance abuse treatment; lobbying; religious organizations for religious purposes; scholarships; short-term events and celebrations, such as conferences, fundraisers or festivals; simultaneous requests from organizations.
