GRANTMAKING GUIDELINES

Altrusa International of Madison, Inc. is a historically women's service club; the Madison Club was established in 1923 and has provided direct service and funding for community organizations since that time. Altrusa established a donor advised fund with the Madison Community Foundation in 1986 to further its aim of providing service to the community.

Grants from the Altrusa Fund will be made in the area of literacy and education broadly defined including:

- Projects to help children and youth meet their full educational potential.
- Projects designed to expand opportunities for people returning to school or the workforce or for retraining.
- Projects for people who need assistance to succeed in school so that they are able to be self-supporting.
- Projects that foster parental involvement with their children's schooling.
- Projects that focus on lifelong learning.

The Altrusa Fund will consider grant requests from $1,000 to $5,000. The average grant is $1,200.
