

Lodi Area Community Endowment Grant Application

The Lodi Area Community Endowment (LACE) is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life in the greater Lodi area for present and future generations. LACE will accept grant requests from qualifying tax-exempt organizations. Key interest areas include: educational, cultural, environmental and civic interests.

LACE grants are limited to projects that serve people who reside in the area bounded by the School District of Lodi. LACE does not fund endowments, loans or re-grant programs, multi-year commitments, religious activities, individuals or groups without a 501(c)(3) designation, other foundations, organizations that practice discrimination, political activities or travel expenses.

Grant Guidelines:

- Grants generally range from $100 - $2,000
- Grant requests are due twice per year on March 31 and/or September 30
- Grant recipients may not apply for a second grant in the same calendar year
- LACE may request additional information following submission of a grant application
- Grant recipients must submit a final report (one page) within one year of the grant disbursement.

Application Process:

- Complete this page plus up to one page of narrative
- Incomplete applications will not be considered
- Include proof of 501(c)(3) status and a roster of organization's board members
- Return to: Lodi Area Community Endowment / c/o LACE / P.O. Box 263
Lodi, WI 53555
